Pastor's Note

Assembly Bill ABx2-15: The End of Life Option Act Consideration From A Catholic Perspective by Reverend Joseph M. Benedict

Assembly Bill ABx2-15, The End of Life Option Act, was passed by California State Senate and has been submitted to Governor Brown for approval or veto. This legislation has received increasing support and greater prominence following the assisted suicide of Brittany Maynard. Brittany Maynard was a 29-year old Bay Area resident who was diagnosed with terminal brain cancer. She moved to Oregon, which allows physician assisted suicide, and ended her life to "escape her suffering."

Her decision to end her life and the pending legislation awaiting Governor Brown's signature must be reconsidered from our Catholic tradition as well as within the context of human life and dignity. We believe that God is the source of all life. The creation stories of Genesis poignantly tell of God's creative action; we read that women and men are created in God's own image and likeness. Therefore, human dignity is not a consequence of cultural development or the result of legislative action. Human dignity flows from God's creative act. We hold firmly to the belief that God is the author of all life. Directly acting against innocent human life is against God's will. To unjustly take the life of another human being, or assist a person in taking their own life, is wrong.

Support for this bill has been presented as a compassionate response to the suffering of Brittany Maynard and other terminally ill patients. Presenting ABx2-15 as a compassionate response, however, is misdirected. This bill undermines the value of the human person, does not fully respect end of life care that must be provided persons in their final days, and places vulnerable persons at greater risk.

The Church has endeavored throughout our history to alleviate human suffering and ease physical pain. Religious communities and lay women and men throughout our history have heroically dedicated themselves to the care of the sick and dying. Caring for the sick and suffering is an integral element of Christian discipleship, an expression of the very ministry of Christ. Such action extolls the value of the human person and incarnates God's desire to heal. Compassionate accompaniment in illness is a Christian response to human suffering and pain.

This accompaniment certainly mandates adequate medical interventions to manage pain; it also assures human presence to ease fear and relieve anxiety. Too often adequate palliative care is absent in the final days of life. According to a 1992 palliative care manual of the Washington Medical Association, 90-99% of all pain of terminally ill patients can be controlled. Furthermore, palliative care has advanced greatly in the past twenty years.

Any person who is suffering from terminal illness remains a member of a human community. Any limitation because of illness and pain must not result in isolation or abandonment. They remain part of our families, parishes, and wider society. Our presence at the end of their life honors the relationships they have forged throughout their life.

Finally, assisted suicide places vulnerable persons and populations at greater risk. The experience in Oregon and Washington State indicate that this is a critical concern. Dr. Leon Kaas, M.D., a leading medical ethicist, indicated in a recent article "I Will Give No Deadly Drug," that many who feel they are a burden to their family and friends, as well as those who are anxious and depressed, are most likely to feel pressure to commit assisted suicide. Accompanying terminally ill patients in their final days can alleviate the perception that they are a burden; it likewise affords the dying the opportunity to express their concerns and honor the relationships that have enriched their lives.

This pending legislation is not a compassionate response to human pain and suffering. It undermines human dignity and limits the freedom of vulnerable persons to face their final days without subtle pressure to end their lives. True compassion demands ample care of the sick and dying, adequate medical intervention to relieve pain, and loving human accompaniment.

"Finding God" Continuous Faith Formation Program

Religious Education here at St. Clare's is more than just a Sacramental preparation program.

Meet our Catechists

My name is Scot Stennis, I joined the St. Clare faith formation program as a volunteer catechist in the Fall of 2013, I will be starting my third year leading the level five class. Over the course of the next seven months, the level five class will cover many topics of the Catholic faith, but special emphasis will be placed on preparing the students to receive the sacraments of Reconciliation and Eucharist. I have enjoyed the opportunity to share the faith and to grow with the students in knowledge and love of God.

My name is Mary Sandoval, I am a member of St. Clare Parish and this will be my fourth year as a catechist. I teach third level and I enjoy getting to know the children and see them grow in their faith and knowledge of God. As a catechist I not only teach the children facts about their faith but also lead them into a personal encounter with Jesus. The children love sharing their own personal stories and they have fun while learning about their faith. They enjoy spending time in prayer and reflection. Being a catechist has been a truly rewarding experience for me; and I look forward to this journey of sharing my faith and my love with the children.

SCHOOL HAPPENINGS

"Jesus told us to be merciful because our Father has been merciful to us" Luke 6:36

The theme for St. Clare School and St. Clare Parish for the 2015-2016 school year is MERCY! Clergy, faculty and staff will endeavor to live, breathe, and act the theme of Mercy.

What Does It Mean To Be Nice?

Live simply. Love generously. Care deeply. Speak kindly.

There comes a time in life when you walk away from all the drama and people who create it. You surround yourself with people who make you laugh, forget the bad, and focus on the good. So, love the people who treat you right. Think good thoughts about the ones who don't—life is too short to be anything but happy. Falling down is part of LIFE—getting back up is LIVING. Don't complain about growing old because few people get the privilege.

- from Troubadour, Winter 2014, a publication of the Sisters of St. Francis of Assisi.

"We must love them both—those whose opinions we share and those whose opinions we reject. For both have labored in the search for truth, and both have helped us in the finding of it.." —Thomas Aquinas

Knights of Columbus Corner

The Knights will be holding a fraternal event on October 10 running from about 10 am to 12 noon at St. Lawrence Parish Hall. The event is sponsored by our insurance agents, but is not limited to Knights only.

They will be addressing those about to retire, have retired or are planning ahead to the day they will retire. Some of the topics will address Medicare and Social Security. The event is free to all; refreshments included.

If you have questions, please contact Tony Colombo at a_colobo1726@comcast.net or call 408.244.2596.

Scripture Readings for THIS Sunday

First Reading: Numbers 11:25-29

Psalms: 19

Second Reading: James 5:1-6

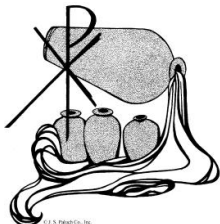

Gospel Reading: Mark 9:38-48

OUR PRODIGAL GOD

We keep having to relearn how prodigal God is. It is as if God cannot quite manage to say no. We think it is surely fine when God is prodigal with us—rich in mercy and forgiveness, generous in grace. But what about the other—the enemy, the sinner, the heretic, the outsider? Well, we expect God to be as stingy with that person as we are.

Moses and Joshua wanted such a cozy world, too. They wondered how the spirit of God could be given to the two who did not show up at the meeting tent—complained because there were some miracle workers who were clearly not followers of Jesus. God's great free-wheeling generosity confounded them all. Let this be, says Jesus. Just see to it that you who lead continue to be worthy of your calling.

Posture During Mass

Because our common posture during Communion is symbolic of our unity with Christ and each other, Bishop McGrath has made a request of all parishes in the Diocese: that all remain standing and singing throughout the distribution of Communion.

Over the next few weeks, we will make this our normal parish liturgical practice. In this symbolic action, we become more fully the Body and Blood of Christ.

Boletim Paroquial Português

Reflexão por: João Pereira Arruda

“Quem não é contra nós é por nós”. Tal como João, muitos de nós também, achamos estranhos pessoas que não são católicos e em muitos casos nem religião têm, fazendo algo extraordinário em nome de Deus. Deus é acessível a todos não obstante o sexo, a cor de pele, a raça, a condição social e até a religião. A nossa atitude de católicos é ter esta frase de Jesus; que em muitos de nós confronta a maneira de pensar. Nós os católicos, é que temos o monopólio de Deus e Jesus responde a João e Deus diz a Moisés que todos tem oportunidade de evangelizar e propagar a Boa-Nova Não devemos ter preconceitos com as pessoas que não são como nós; tal como Moisés estaremos nós abertos á acção e á manifestação do Espírito Santo no coração daqueles com quem nos relacionamos? As diferenças acentuam a capacidade de Deus de chegar a mundos culturais e sociais diferentes do nosso. A nossa comunidade nos nossos dias, também deve ter em conta que é necessário sermos activos e abertos ás mudanças que o mundo actual se nos apresenta. Que não nos percamos pelas mudanças litúrgicas que aparecem de vez em quando. Estas aparecem para acentuar algum aspecto do modo como participamos no Santo Sacrifício da Missa e aderindo ás mesmas dá sinais da unidade que temos na comunidade. Lembremo-nos que o Espírito Santo de Deus dá as suas graças a todos que as querem receber e as investir no servir o povo de Deus. A atitude correcta sobre mobilidade e mudança está em nos abrir-nos e aderir-nos a estas e em muitos casos acordar da modorra em que nós próprios e cómodamente nos instalamos. Quando assim temos o Espírito de Deus para nos motivar a seguir na senda correcta para chegar a Deus.

Curso de Bíblia em Português

É já na próxima quarta-feira que as classes de Bíblia em português começam. Estas teem lugar na SES das 7-9pm e serão administadas pelo Padre Pedro e pelo casal Manuel e Diane Madruga. Ainda há muito lugar basta os interessados pedirem informações á Diane Madruga pelo telefone: 408-391-2962 ou pelo correio electrónico: camponeses@sbcglobal.net.

Livro de Petições para os enfermos

Nos últimos dois domingos se tem trazido o “livro de petições para se orar para os enfermos da nossa paróquia”. Está nesta ideia: incluir as pessoas da nossa paróquia que estão enfermos e não podem fisicamente participar na Santa Missa e neste gesto fazê-las parte integrante da missa e ao mesmo tempo pedir ao Senhor a recuperação da saúde para as mesmas. O Livro será trazido na procissão das oferendas e depositado no ambão junto ao coro. As pessoas que tem membros de família que necessitam da oração da comunidade façam o favor de as inscrever antes da Missa. Para mais informações contactem com João Arruda.

Tradiciones de Nuestra Fe

Jesús dice a sus discípulos: “Les aseguro que no quedará sin recompensa el que les dé de beber un vaso de agua por el hecho de que ustedes pertenecen a Cristo” (Marcos 9:41). De esta manera Jesús muestra ser un buen judío. Existe una vieja tradición hebrea que relata que Dios premia no sólo a sus santos, los profetas, sino también a los discípulos del santo, y a quienes ayudan y alimentan a los profetas o sus discípulos. Así mismo, Dios abre las puertas de su generosidad con los santos y quienes de una manera u otra están relacionados con dicho profeta.

Nuestro Dios es un Dios generoso, por tal motivo, ama a quien da con alegría. Los cristianos somos receptores de la generosidad del Dios de Israel, ya que éste no nos negó a su propio Hijo. Desde el principio del cristianismo la generosidad de tiempo, talento y dinero han sido la señal palpable de nuestro amor fraterno. Jesús promete que esta generosidad será premiada en esta vida y en la vida eterna. Seamos generosos. —Fray Gilberto Cavazos-Glz, OFM, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Postura Durante la Comunión

Les recordamos que para mostrar nuestra unión con Cristo permaneceremos de pie y cantado durante la distribución de la Sagrada Comunión, hasta que todos reciban la Comunión y el sacerdote regrese a su asiento, tal y como el Obispo lo ha venido pidiendo a todas las parroquias de la diócesis.

Inicia el Catecismo

El próximo domingo inician las clases del catecismo. Los esperamos a las 10:15am en la escuela.

Gracias Por su Apoyo en el Festival de Arte y Vino de Santa Clara

A todos los voluntarios que nos ayudaron el viernes, sábado y domingo, tanto en el parque y como en la cocina, les damos las gracias. ¡Hicieron un trabajo excelente! También damos las gracias por sus generosas donaciones a Lulu Santana, Stacy Lara, Suleika Aguilar, Juan Leal, Lupita González, Lucy Zapata y Liz Lara. Una mención muy especial a Kevin Farmer y Martha Mendoza por su invaluable ayuda. También damos las gracias al incansable grupo de personas encabezado por Toña Ayala, Mary Reyes, Lucy Mancillas y Vicky Human que estuvieron en la cocina preparando todo lo necesario para la elaboración de los sabrosos tacos. De nuevo mil gracias a todos y esperamos contar con su apoyo y participación el próximo año.

Bendiciones en la Misa

En los domingos que no se tiene El Rito de Acogida (Bienvenida) de los niños a bautizar, se tendrán bendiciones para la comunidad. El primer domingo del mes serán para los que cumplen años, y en los otros dos uno será para los aniversarios de bodas y el otro para las diferentes devociones y tradiciones.

Si desea una bendición especial durante la misa debe ir a la oficina, con Paty Rascón, con 2 semanas de anticipación para dar los datos y la donación.
