Parish Mission Statement

Founded in 1777, Saint Clare Parish is an ethnically diverse Catholic community of faith, united in worship, discipleship and service. In welcoming immigrants, newcomers and strangers, we strive to live the virtues of justice and love, so as to be the face of Christ in the world, becoming in Him a sign of unity and an instrument of God's peace.

From Monsignor Fran Cilia

This Thursday, we will observe the Feast of Saint Clare of Assisi, Patroness of our parish. Our annual celebration gives us an opportunity to reflect upon the Franciscan charism of Clare and how we continue to be faithful to it more than 800 years after she began her ministry.

Looking back to her life and ministry, we look to the many families that form our one parish family. As Saint Clare joined with Saint Francis to renew the Church, so it falls to us to give new life to our Parish, our Diocese and our Church.

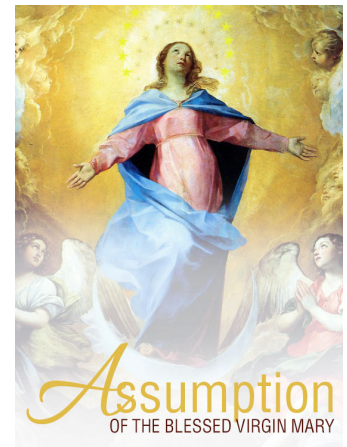

We join together in preparation for our Diocesan Synod, the first in our 41 years as a local Church. We are one with Catholics across the United States in renewing our understanding, appreciation and faith in the mystery of the Eucharist, which was so dear to Saint Clare.

On Thursday evening, we will have a special parish celebration of the Eucharist at 6:30 pm, followed by a reception in the Rectory Garden. Last year's Feastday Mass was a diocesan gathering during the 40th Anniversary Jubilee Year. This year, our celebration will be more modest, a parish-wide gathering. I hope you and your families and neighbors will be able to be with us. Weather permitting, we will be in the tent for Mass. It is not too late to let us know of your intent to be there: <https://forms.office.com/r/TLV3ekRe6g>

Looking Ahead. . .

Next Sunday, August 14, our Portuguese community will be celebrating the Festa in honor of Saint Anthony. While this Mass will be in the church at 10:30, the 10:30 English Mass will be celebrated in the tent.

Monday, August 15, is the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. When this feast falls on a Monday or a Saturday, there is no obligation to attend Mass. However, all who are able are encouraged to observe the feast by participating at Mass that day. Our Masses will be at 8:00 am in English and at 6:30 pm bilingual (English and Spanish).

On Sunday, August 28, our Portuguese Council will prepare a summer "picnic" of beef or chicken shish-ka-bob. Tickets for adults are $30 and $15 for children under 12. More details will be announced in coming weeks, but you can plan ahead for this August feast!

Interested in becoming a Catechist?

Calling Catechists or anyone interested in becoming a Catechist or Catechist assistant. Our Faith Formation sessions for Grade 1-6 is expected to begin in October. Please contact Sandra Quintanilla at 669-270-2702 with any questions. Please join us and begin preparation in time for our upcoming 2022-2023, October - May session.

Weekly Justice Challenge

Pope Paul the VI said “If you want peace, work for justice.” In a world that has wars, terrorism, violence, and fear, the Christ-like way to fix it is to be people of peace. This only happens when we work for justice. When everyone has enough food, decent shelter, hopes for an education, meaningful work, and healthcare, then justice will be the norm. Many people have given their lives to the work of justice in the world. Your challenge this week is to do a Google or other internet search of people who work for justice. You may find names of people you have heard of and many you have not. Take time to learn about justice and peace workers this week. Keep as a role model or mentor someone you discovered in your search. Share their story and keep their dream alive.

Creation Care Tips

“From everyone to whom much has been given, much will be required; and from the one to whom much has been entrusted, even more will be demanded.” —Luke 12:48

Pope Francis’ encyclical on the environment adopts Jesus’ teaching here. He quotes the bishops in Bolivia who state, “the countries which have benefited from a high degree of industrialization, at the cost of enormous emissions of greenhouse gases, have a greater responsibility for providing a solution to the problems they have caused” (Laudato Si’ #170). Who can you lobby this week to reduce greenhouse gases on a large scale? Your town’s electric provider? A legislative leader who might be considering some emissions regulations? A national leader in the midst of debates about renewable power? Write a letter, send an email, make a phone call, or make your voice heard somehow this week.

Mirando hacia atrás a su vida y ministerio, miramos a las muchas familias que forman nuestra única familia parroquial. Como Santa Clara se unió a San Francisco a renovar la Iglesia, así nos corresponde a nosotros dar nueva vida a nuestra Parroquia, nuestra Diócesis y nuestra Iglesia.

Nos unimos en preparación para nuestro Sínodo Diocesano, el primero en nuestros 41 años como Iglesia local. Somos uno con los católicos de todo Estados Unidos para renovar nuestra comprensión, aprecio y fe en el misterio de la Eucaristía, tan querido por Santa Clara.

El jueves por la noche tendremos una celebración parroquial especial de la Eucaristía a las 6:30 pm, seguida de una recepción en el Jardín de la Rectoría. La misa de la fiesta del año pasado fue una reunión diocesana durante el 40 Aniversario del Año Jubilar. Este año, nuestra celebración será más modesta, una reunión de toda la parroquia. Espero que usted y sus familias y vecinos puedan estar con nosotros. Si el clima lo permite, estaremos en la carpa para la Misa. No es demasiado tarde para informarnos de su intención de estar allí: <https://forms.office.com/r/TLV3ekRe6g>

Mirando Hacia el Futuro...

El próximo domingo 14 de agosto nuestra comunidad portuguesa estará celebrando la Festa en honor a San Antonio. Si bien esta Misa será en la iglesia a las 10:30 am, la Misa en inglés de las 10:30 am será celebrada en la carpa.

El lunes 15 de agosto es la Solemnidad de la Asunción de la Santísima Virgen María.

Cuando esta fiesta cae en lunes o en sábado, no es día de precepto. Sin embargo, animamos a todos los que puedan observar la fiesta participando en la Misa ese día. Nuestras misas serán a las 8:00 am en inglés y a las 6:30 pm bilingüe (inglés y español).

Mirando Hacia el Futuro. . .

El domingo 28 de agosto, nuestro Consejo Portugués preparará una “picnic” de verano de carne o pollo shish-ka-bob. Los boletos para adultos cuestan $ 30 y $ 15 para niños menores de 12 años. Se anunciarán más detalles en las próximas semanas, ¡pero puede planificar con anticipación para esta fiesta de agosto!

¿Le gustaría ser Catequista?

Llamar a los catequistas o a cualquier persona interesado en ser Catequista o Asistente de Catequista. Nuestras sesiones de formación de fe para 1-6 a grado se espera que comiencen en octubre. Comuníquese con Sandra Quintanilla al 669-270-2702 si tiene alguna pregunta.

Únase a nosotros y comience la preparación a tiempo para nuestra próxima sesión de octubre a mayo de 2022-2023.

Bautismo * Eucaristía * Confirmación para Adultos

¿Está usted o alguien que conoce interesado en la fe católica? Las clases para el Rito de Iniciación Cristiana de Adultos están disponibles para cualquier persona que quiera recibir el Bautismo, completar sus Sacramentos de Iniciación o aprender más sobre la fe católica. El proceso comienza con un período de "Indagación", cuando las preguntas conducen a la exploración. Pase - sin obligación, sin compromiso, sin presión. La mayoría de las sesiones se realizan a través de Zoom; Las sesiones comienzan el 6 de septiembre. Si quiere emprender en este viaje de fe comuníquese con la rectoría.

Desafío de Justicia Semanal

El Papa Pablo VI dijo: “Si quieres la paz, trabaja por la justicia”. En un mundo que tiene guerras, terrorismo, la violencia y el miedo, la forma cristiana de solucionarlo es ser personas de paz. Esto solo sucede cuando trabajamos por la justicia. Cuando todos tengan suficiente comida, vivienda decente, esperanzas de educación, trabajo significativo y atención médica, entonces la justicia será la norma. Muchas personas han dado su vida por la obra de justicia en el mundo. Su reto de esta semana es hacer una búsqueda en Google u otra búsqueda en Internet de personas que trabajan por la justicia. Puede encontrar nombres de personas de las que ha oído hablar y muchas de las que no. Tómese el tiempo para aprender sobre los trabajadores de la justicia y la paz esta semana. Mantenga como modelo a seguir o mentor a alguien que descubrió en su búsqueda. Comparta su historia y mantenga vivo su sueño.

STEWARDSHIP SAINT for August

Saint Clare of Assisi

Clare of Assisi was a close friend of Saint Francis of Assisi and the foundress of the Poor Clares. She was born in Assisi in 1194 and at age 18 was so moved by the Lenten sermons of Francis that she renounced all of her possessions and entered a convent, much to the dissatisfaction of her family and friends, who tried very hard to dissuade her and bring her home. She was formed in the religious life at Benedictine monasteries and then accepted Francis' offer of a small house for herself and her companions adjacent to the church of San Damiano in Assisi. At age 21, she was appointed by Francis to lead the community, much against her will. She would lead the community for the next forty years and would never leave the San Damiano convent. The community would eventually include her mother and two sisters.

Clare served the sick and washed the feet of the begging nuns. She was devoted to a life of prayer and celebration of the Eucharist.

The way of life in the new community was marked by poverty and austerity, and sustained itself entirely from charitable contributions. The Poor Clares observed almost complete silence unless spoken to or in order to perform a work of charity. They went barefoot, slept on the ground and ate no meat. In later years, Clare urged her nuns to moderate their own austerities and offer Christ "reasonable service and sacrifice seasoned with the salt of prudence." The greatest emphasis, of course, was on gospel poverty. They owned no property.

Clare served the sick and washed the feet of the begging nuns. She was devoted to a life of prayer and celebration of the Eucharist. She was first up in the morning to ring the choir bell and light the candles.

Clare sought to imitate Francis' virtues and way of life so much so that she was sometimes called "another Francis." She played a significant role in encouraging and aiding Francis, whom she saw as a spiritual father figure. She took care of him during his final illness.

From the time Francis died in 1226 until her own death 27 years later, Clare suffered various illnesses and was often bedridden. All the while, she lived a simple but dedicated religious life, performing such menial tasks as sewing altar linens for local parishes. Twice when the town of Assisi was under attack, Clare prayed before the Blessed Sacrament and the armies were said to have ended their siege and fled.

Clare's nuns soon spread to other countries in Europe, including Spain, Italy, Germany, France and England. Today, they are also established in the Middle East, Asia, Africa, Oceania, and the Americas. She passed away on August 11, 1253 and was canonized two years later. Her feast day is August 11.

Cultivating Good Stewardship in Farmers' Markets

Of all of summer's pleasures, few can top that early morning trip to the farmers' market. And nothing can top the farmers' market for health, nutrition, freshness and taste. This year, August 7 to 13 is National Farmers' Market Week. Let's celebrate by counting all the great reasons to grab a reusable cloth bag and head to the market.

Nutrition is high on the list. Fresh produce that makes its way from the field to the table in short order means more vitamins and minerals for your family. And of course, freshness means better taste, the tastiest produce of the year.

Farmers' markets are said to promote child health and reduce childhood obesity by increasing children's access to affordable and convenient fruits and vegetables. And farmers' markets increasingly support anti-hunger initiatives through donations of unsold food to feeding programs for those in need.

There are also great ecological reasons to shop the farmers' market. Today, food at the grocery averages about 1,500 miles to get from the producer to your plate. Transportation of food contributes to our carbon footprint in a huge way. Buying from the producer in your local area cuts down on transportation drastically. Moreover, these local producers play a key role in developing regional foodsheds which also benefits the environment.

Here's something else: sometimes we forget about the cycles of growth and production when we visit a supermarket in snowy February to buy an eggplant. The farmers' market restores your connection to the natural cycles in your area.

You will also be surprised by the variety of produce at the market. Maybe you'll try a vegetable you've never tasted before. And the meat and eggs you purchase are produced in environments that treat animals humanely.

And let's face it: what is more energizing than walking through your local market, meeting area farmers, greeting your neighbors, maybe picking up a locally grown bouquet of flowers or a fresh muffin and feeling like you are part of a vibrant community.

Farmers' markets are as old and as American as apple pie. And the apple in that pie is locally sourced, higher in nutrition and great for small business. Make the farmers' market a weekly summer adventure and be a steward of good food, nutrition, health and the community.

Practicing Good Stewardship in Our Parishes

We're still in the grip of a hot and sunny summer, but August brings a wake-up call. By August's end, visiting relatives have gone home, schools will be open, swimming pools will be closed, and college kids have packed up and left for the halls of academia. What's all that mean for the Christian steward? As we journey through August, parishes begin to teem with plans and new vitality.

The parish is where the Church lives, and stewards are the lifeblood of a successful parish. In the parish, we find community and support, liturgy and ritual, sacrament and healing. In the parish, we find a way to give and a way to receive. On a practical level, fall is the time when parish planning gears up for the seasons ahead. Now, for a Christian steward, is the time to prayerfully consider your own involvement in the life of the parish in the coming year. How might we serve – and be served? The Christian steward knows participation in the parish is a win-win situation, feeding us as we feed others.

The parish is where the Church lives, and stewards are the lifeblood of a successful parish.

Where to begin? Your parish website or office may provide a list of ministries in the parish. What calls to you? Respond to your deep desire. Maybe you're the party planner who'd love to serve on the social committee. Or perhaps you have a heart for helping the bereaved. Are you called to lector, or perhaps to take the Eucharist to the homebound? Maybe this is the year you need to soak in the fruits of adult education. Possibly you see a ministry missing and want to propose it. Perhaps, as a long time steward, you want to be part of revitalizing the stewardship efforts of your parish.

If you take a look at the schedule for ICSC's October conference, you know there are a host of sessions which address how to enliven parish stewardship. Maybe this is the year you're called to attend the conference – another win-win situation in which you learn how to welcome the stranger, bring out the best in your parishioners, and encourage discipleship all while experiencing the community and support of other conference goers. August is a perfect time to reflect on where – not "if" -- you are called. August provides time to decompress from a busy, fun summer and pray about where your own road to discipleship leads you next.

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Weekend of August 6/7, 2022

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus concludes his teaching about those who are "faithful and prudent stewards" with that classic stewardship teaching: "Much will be required of the person entrusted with much, and still more will be demanded of the person entrusted with more." Christian stewards recognize that God is the ultimate source of their gifts, talents, resources and aptitudes, and that God wants them to use these varied gifts in his service. This week might be a good time to reflect on our God-given gifts. Are we using those gifts to serve the Lord? If Christ came back to us unexpectedly tomorrow would we be able to give a full accounting of how we have exercised stewardship over these gifts?

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Weekend of August 13/14, 2022

In today's second reading, we hear the author of the letter to the Hebrews liken the daily life of the Christian steward to a race, a long-distance race perhaps, certainly not a sprint; requiring endurance and a single-minded focus on Jesus at the finish line. Good stewards are firmly committed to running the race, to live the Christian life to the fullest, to keep their eyes focused on Jesus. They don't grow weary. They don't lose heart. They know there is immense joy waiting for them at the finish line. Are you fully committed to living each day for Christ? Are you running the race, or are you simply jogging? Just walking? Sitting? Going backwards? Going nowhere? Some of us may want to reflect on what we can do to run the race with even more conviction. Others may want to reflect on how to simply enter the race and start running.

Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time
Weekend of August 20/21, 2022

The Gospel reading today starts with a question: "Lord, will only a few people be saved?" Jesus offers only a simple reply: Strive to enter through the narrow gate. Many will try to enter and will not be able. Good stewards know there is only one, narrow gate. Not everything will fit. This narrow gate has no room for our accomplishments. No room for our money. No room for our possessions. No room for anything else but those who've been good stewards of the Gospel. We can't custom build our own gates either. There is only one, narrow gate that happens to be open for a time, but for how long? What is our plan of action to get through that gate?

Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time
Weekend of August 27/28, 2022

In today's Gospel, Jesus challenged the social structure of the Pharisees and teaches his hosts and their guests some profound lessons in humility. Pharisees maintained deep social divisions between who they considered "holy" and "unholy," rich and poor, honored and despised. They didn't invite someone to a banquet or dinner who couldn't reciprocate. And the lowly, the poor, the crippled, the lame and the blind had no capacity to reciprocate.

Good stewards realize that if they embrace a humility that allows them to be generous to those who cannot repay them, they give evidence of having the kind of heart that will enjoy the Lord's intimate friendship. This week let's reflect on our attitude towards those who cannot repay our generosity. What is the extent of our hospitality toward others? Are we generous with those who cannot repay us?

Boletim Paroquial Português Domingo XIX do Tempo Comum Reflexão por: João Pereira Arruda

PARISH COMMUNITY

“Os justos seriam solidários nos bens e nos perigos.” Assim diz no final da Primeira Leitura do Livro da Sabedoria. Assim deveriam ser os cristãos dos nossos dias, tal e qual o foram nos tempos de cativo no Egípto, na Babilónia, nos tempos primórdios da fundação da nossa Igreja. Ser solidário é estar comprometido em fazer esforços para viver num mundo mais unido e fraterno. Não é a situação que hoje vivemos em quase todo o mundo. Os meios de comunicação; sejam eles de interesse público, social e projectados pelos televisores, por meios tecnológicos ou pelos jornais: são todos meios que no dia a dia informam, debatem, comentem e neste processo criem a desunidade, semeiam dúvidas sobre tudo o que pretendem as companhias ou os partidos políticos que financiam esses meios de comunicação. As sementes da dúvida e desunião chegam também aos cristãos e á igreja. A figura central de Cristo que deveria ser o centro de toda a atenção do cristão fica desfocada, a desatenção causa o cristão se afastar de Cristo e no processo deixa-se enlamear pelos ódios, raivas, sentimentos de pezar e tristeza. O Cristão dos nossos dias tem necessidade de reflectir e questionar-se: O que faria Jesus Cristo nesta situação? Pensem ou meditem no Cristo no caso da mulher adúltera. No Cristo que respondendo ao fariseu sobre a moeda alcunhada com a cara de Cesar disse-lhe: “a Cesar o que é de Cesar e a Deus o que é de Deus”. Era assim que Jesus Cristo deixou-nos tantos exemplos para sermos como Ele. Todos os seus exemplos o Pai estava assim de tudo e todos.

S. Paulo inicia a Segunda Leitura dizendo: “A fé é a garantia dos bens que se esperam e a certeza das realidades que não se vêem”. Assim procedeu na vida Abraão, nosso pai na fé pondo toda a sua vida confiada no Senhor. Mas quando os rumos das nossas vidas ficam enovoados ficamos desfocados das prioridades e dos objectivos que temos na esperança da salvação eterna. Deste modo nos distanciamos de Deus perdendo a fé para nos centrarmos no acumulado de bens, de nos tornarmos deuses de nós mesmos. Tal como Jesus chama o homem rico de insensato assim também a nossa insensatez de vivermos no egoísmo e no acumulado de riquezas e farturas sem se comprometer com os irmãos que nos rodeiam deste modo também nos tornamos insensatos. As leituras da liturgia de hoje lembam-nos que só somos felizes quando estamos com Deus. “Feliz o povo que o Senhor, escolheu para sua herança” Os egoístas não fazem parte desse povo do Senhor

Festa de Santo António!

No próximo Domingo o horário da nossa missa será ás 10:30, para inserir a celebração da festa anual em louvor de Santo António promovida pela Irmandade de Santo António Conselho #1 de Santa Clara.

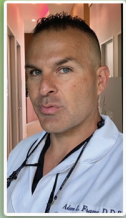

Piquenique Anual da nossa Comunidade

Reservem a data de Domingo dia 28 de Agosto próximo para participarem numa promoção de angariamento de fundos promovida pelo Conselho Paroquial Português. A ementa é a mesma dos últimos 30 anos: carne no espeto ou galinha e os bilhetes já podem ser obtidos através de qualquer membro do Conselho aos preços de $30.00 para adultos e de $15.00 para crianças menores de 12 anos. O jantar será servido no parque da escola na área designada dos churrascos. Mais detalhes serão divulgados em próximos boletins. Mas são muito benvindas ofertas monetárias que servem de ajuda para abater os custos que comporta esta promoção. Uma vez que esta promoção volta ser com antes da pandemia iremos ter arrematações, rifas...tal como fazia-mos dantes.

Por favor venham todos participar neste piquenique e tragam os membros das vossas famílias. Para esta actividade ser bem sucedida necessita que todos nós façamos esforços de participação para que possamos conseguir além da receita sentir-se contente de pertencer a esta comunidade e contribuir no máximo para o bem da mesma.

Um Santo e Alegre Domingo para todos!!
